

Curriculum Structure

The MFA-TRD consists of 57 credit hours completed over two years, comprising required courses, elective seminars and a thesis or industry-integrated capstone.

| | |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------|
| Required Courses | 39 credit hours |
| Elective Courses | 9 credit hours |
| Thesis / Industry-Integrated Capstone | 9 credit hours |

Required Courses (39 credit hours)

Trans-Disciplinary Seminar I
Art Theory and Critical Discourse
Design Research Methodologies
Design Studio I
Visual Communication
Design Pedagogy
Design Studio II
Immersive Media and Technologies for Design
Design and Ethics
Design Studio III
Master's Thesis

Elective Courses (9 credit hours)

Students select three electives from the following:

Trans-Disciplinary Innovation with AI and Big Data
Design Strategies for Circular Economy
Advanced User Experience Design
Social Innovation and Community Development
Intercultural Design Strategies
Design for Empowerment and Social Transformation
Design Leadership and Entrepreneurship
Technologies for Designing Change
Industry-Integrated Capstone Project